

Samwarthika Ayurveda Hospital located at Muvattupuzha

About Us

Samwarthika Ayurveda Hospital located at Muvattupuzha, in Ernakulam District was established in the year 2017 with a mission and vision of promoting and spreading authentic, traditional Kerala Ayurveda Panchakarma Treatments globally. Since its inception, Samwarthika has received guests from all around the world. Within a short time, we have won the 2 highest recognitions which are given below.

NABH Accreditation (Highest accreditation from Govt. of India)

Ayur Diamond Classification (Highest Classification from Govt. of Kerala)

We have a Medical Panel consisting of Nine experienced Ayurveda Doctors who are having on hands experience in treating different types of ailments. There are 3 Resident doctors whose service is available round the clock. Our Masseurs Team consisting 20 expert therapeutic assistants (Both Men & Women).

Samwarthika is having a Total built-up area of 30,000 sq. ft which allows all our rooms, common areas, lobby, and pathways very spacious. In the Main Building Complex, which is built in accordance with the Kerala Traditional Architecture (Nalukettu), we have got 24 spacious and well-furnished guest rooms (in different categories) which provide all basic amenities (attached bathrooms with hot water, free Wifi, etc).

Other facilities include our own Ayurvedic Kitchen to serve all the guests with Satwik vegetarian diet, spacious Yoga & Meditation hall, well-equipped treatment rooms, Physio Therapy Room, Library, etc.

Another notable feature of Samwarthika is the divine presence of Lord Dhanwantharythe God of Ayurveda. The deity is situated and worshiped in the Dhanwanthary Temple close to the entrance and reception.

Samwarthika is located on a lush green campus that is enriched with a lot of Herbal Plants & Trees. Most of the Ayurvedic Medicines are prepared in our own Medicine Preparation Facility inside the campus, under the close supervision of Ayurveda Doctors.

We have cattle shed too where we have cows and buffalos.
